ABOUT STEP2

STEP2 is a nonprofit organization that is dedicated to helping women overcome substance use disorders. We are not just another rehab center—we are a community that understands the unique challenges women face on their journey to recovery. For over three decades, we have been providing gender-specific supportive services to women, including those who are pregnant, parenting or have young children. We firmly believe that being a parent should never be a barrier to receiving the help you need. We are here to ensure that every woman has access to the care and support she deserves.

TESTIMONIALS

“I love waking up every day, going to work, and being a mom. Life is great, and I owe it all to STEP2. I am grateful for having the chance to live a different life than the one that I was living. STEP2 has helped me learn skills and tools that allow me to live my life without using drugs. Before, I felt ugly inside and out, I was a terrible person, and I hated life. Today, I am a new person. I am caring, beautiful, and amazing.”

“I can tell you that the approach to learning to slow your world down, to be able to focus on being safe and healthy, being aware of your thoughts and behaviors, and your choice of words is powerful. I learned this at STEP2. Every day I know my foundation started with this program.”

“When I got to STEP2, they accepted me with open arms and with a tremendous amount of understanding. STEP2 has given me the support that I did not have, ever. I was able to learn about myself and learn why I wasn't alive in my own life. Instead of emptiness, I became filled up with positive affirmations and sound counseling. Because of STEP2, I have become the driver of my own life.”

“STEP2 taught me that I am worthy of having a safe and happy family. STEP2 helped me get my children back, obtain a job, and regain my confidence. I now know that my past wasn't an excuse for my choices, but a reason. Now, as I see it, my reason for living is bigger and better than any addiction.”
